THE USURER'S DEATH.

He was a man of strange, peculiar workmanship,
Unlike the 'common herd' of Earth's proud sons;
His fleshless bones seemed willing for to burst
The skin that in its furrow folded them;—
And were it not for his little eye that shone,
Like some bright diamond in a lump of clay,
You scarcely would have known he did exist,
As one of Nature's spurious handi-works.
But still the eye—the index of the mind,
Shone with a clear, unearthly brilliancy,—
On whose bright page you fain might look, and read
The very nature, passions, hopes, and fears,
Of its clay tenement. Mind in him had never taken root,
And all he knew, or thought, or cared about,
Was to count o'er the yellow pile of gold,
Which he had gained by usury from those,
Whom poverty and want had driven to his door.
He had no kindred sympathies with men,
Nor could the bitter tears of misery ever reach
The chambers of his avaricious heart.
The varied beauty of old mother Earth,
When she puts on her garb of richest dye,—
And the broad, clear, and ever-glorious heavens,
Lit up with never-dying lights that burn,
Like sentinels of immortality,—
To him were but a blank and leafless book,
Whose gilded covering might attract the eye,
But had no power to pierce his callous heart.
Thus did he live—and when the queen of Night,
Threw her soft mantle over the virent earth,—
He sought his miserable and forsaken hut,
And threw himself upon a bed of straw,—
And as the wind moaned through the small key-hole,
And swung the turrets of his window to and fro,
He half-raised himself up from off his lowly couch,
And grasping with palsied hand his much-loved keys,
He muttered in a stern demoniac voice,
These words, Oh rob me not !"—sunk back and died.

STENOGRAPHIC GLIMPSES OF CONGRESS—No. 134.

Washington, May 6th, 1834.—We have been overwhelmed with dust for a fortnight, but the windows of Heaven were opened yesterday; and there was more spouting than even in the case of the late Nantucket memorial. We had a storm yesterday and last night, "most extensive, outrageous and perpendicular;" so that they had to adjourn the first Monday of May, (a great day here) over till to-day—and a finer day I have rarely experienced. It seems really a pity to talk politics this weather; but for the present that is "my vocation,—no invocation,—Hal." So here goes.

Just to give a specimen of the nonsense circulated for rumors, I will note, that I have seen and heard people silly enough here to say they understood the "President was going to resign, and the Speaker too." Such stuff news is made of. As to the Speaker, his name has long been connected with the contemplated appointment to England; but Mr Clay can't vote for him—because the deposites are removed. I know not who will succeed to the Speaker's chair; few or none can fill it better than he. I believe he has given as much satisfaction as it is possible for any man to give in that difficult and arduous situation. Many have been mentioned as very likely to succeed him, should the Chair be vacated—which will not probably be till the close of the session; among others, the name of Dr. Sutherland, of Pa, is among the most prominent. If he shows the readiness in the Chair that he does out of it, I can answer for him, he will make a prompt Speaker. He has got a fine voice, and distinct enunciation; and every man is obliged to hear what he says, when he says any thing—and he always says something when he speaks, more especially when he has an opposition man to deal with. He sometimes encounters Mr Adams—'tis "Greek meets Greek." He and Mr A. had a 'bout the other day, in which the latter alluded to the Doctor's religion; and when he came to reply, he said that in respect to religion, the gentleman and himself were like a whist party in the nine holes—honors were easy. In rejoining Mr A. said he thanked the gentleman for what he had said, and what he had not said; the Dr. retorted, that the gentleman need not thank him for what he had said, but might well thank him for what he had not. There is much in these encounters of wits, that cannot be described. Mr Adams is distinguished for his cutting retorts; and if he is ever foiled, he never shows it; and when was he ever foiled, except by Clay?—and then he was only coiled—he suffered his direst foe to coil his venomous folds around him. It was a bad "precedent," except that it bruised the serpent's head, so that he will never be able to raise it so high as the Presidential Chair.

But let me pass to the Senate. We had an interesting day here—beginning with Dr. Naudain's presenting a prayer for the relief and renown of Dr. Boyd Riley, for the invention of Brimstone Steam Navigation, as applied to the human system; it comes under the head of external, not "internal" improvements. Dr. Riley wants to navigate the naval and military forces, as well as the fashionables of the District of Columbia, with his sulphur steam. The subject had been referred to a Military Committee, but they drummed it out of camp. It is now billeted upon a Medical Committee raised this morning for the purpose. If nobody will pay any poor devil of a Sangrado for heating his poker or raising his brimstone steam, Uncle Sam is called upon incontinently.

And now a word to Mr. Calhoun. He made a speech on the protest; pretty much all precious ideology, except a few facts and fancies for premises, which he kicked behind him, as ambition does his ladder, when he has attained its utmost round. He accused the President of ambition; of removing the Secretary to place another in office to remove deposites; the case had come to the Senate for their approval; and they had decided his reasons insufficient.

I can tell Mr. Calhoun, the Senate is not Congress, and to Congress only is the Secretary bound to give his reasons; and they have no more right to pass judgment on him without an impeachment from the House, than they have on a Turk. He affected to think this was a great contest—yes, a great one, if the Senate should win; but a small one if they are worsted, as they certainly were to-day.

He said the President was "unfortunate—blinded by ambition—intoxicated by flattery—dark, lawless, and insatiable ambition." Poh! only think of your prospects, Mr Calhoun, eighteen years ago; and see who is the most infatuated—who the most blinded by ambition—the most intoxicated with flattery! He then began to to talk about the President's coming to the Senate to repeal its "Ordinances!" Why, the man is crazy—absolutely distraught—he confessed, the cases were so much alike that he mistook Resolutions for Ordinances. He spoke three quarters of an hour to but little purpose, except it was to admit that the "Protest had been received, and he could not vote for not receiving it;" he offered some Resolutions, by way of amendment to Mr Poindexter's.

Mr Forsyth made a very forcible argument to the Senate, demonstrating, that it was more for their honor and privilege to record the Protest, than attempt to reject it, and offered Resolutions, requiring that a copy of the Protest and the contradictory Resolutions should be transmitted to the several legislatures for their revision and judgment.

Mr Clay thought this was not in order; the Chair decided against him; and he appealed, and found himself in the minority with only Clayton, Sprague, and Naudain! What a triumph this for Clay's knowledge of parliamentary Rules, after twenty years' experience! Clay was altogether out of temper, at the defeat and disgrace that was likely at last to fall on himself and his Resolutions, which have cost the Nation more than a hundred thousand dollars.

Mr Preston made a short, rancorous speech, in the worst taste and worst style, I ever knew him to fall into.

Mr Webster thought the President had a right to send his Message or Protest—that it could not be refused; that the Senate had in fact received it—that it was received in the parliamentary sense of the term, when it was transmitted to the Senate—and most certainly since it had been read. He said, in conclusion, that he thought a "milder course now the better one; and even were they not bound to receive it, he thought it would be best they should!" He has the floor tomorrow on Mr Forsyth's amendment. I think by his conduct today that he has given indications that his route in future will diverge a little from Clay's.—"It is time," I think, as Napoleon said, when he first got a glimpse of the Kremlin; and if he does not want to undergo a retreat from Russia, he had best not "rob a foot further," as Falstaff says, with the "correlative" of the Puritan.

REIS EFFENDI.

PURE BEAR'S OIL may be had by the groce, dozen or single bottle, of A. BOYDEN, Hancock-st.

As in all cases, so especially in this, Venders, if they wish to secure the patronage of the public, should be extremely cautious not to sell an article for the Hair which tends to counteract rather than assist nature.

The virtues of Bear's Oil have been too long tested to need any eulogium; and at this time no one can doubt of its being the very best article for strengthening and promoting the growth of the Hair. An honest prejudice against the use of Bear's Oil has long existed, arising from two causes—the improper method of purifying it, and the imposition upon the public of a spurious article. That this prejudice may be wholly removed, this article now offered is warranted the pure Oil, rendered more pleasant by the addition of a little perfume—and the possibility of its injuring the Hair is entirely precluded by the manner in which it has been purified. To prevent fraud, the genuine is enclosed in two wrappers, the inside one being signed Arnold Boyden. aug 15

THE BOSTON MORNING POST.

MONDAY, MAY 12, 1834.

☞ Here we are, out to-day on an enlarged sheet, with new type, &c. &c. We shall endeavor, in conducting the POST, to combine the useful with the pleasant, and hope to receive the continuance of a patronage which has enabled us to double the size of our paper in two years and a half from the time of its commencement. We now "go ahead" in good spirits, with upwards of TWO THOUSAND subscribers, and a determination to fight for the Democratic Party so long as we have a type in our office or a scrap of paper as big as our thumb nail. There are some clever fellows among our brother Whig editors, with whom we shall not object to crack a joke occasionally, notwithstanding we have our new clothes on; but with that snarling, crabbed, malignant race of Calibans, who, with the temper of a cur, and the venom of a toad, are barking and spitting at every one who displeases them, we shall not meddle—they may yelp and foam until they are stunned by their own howls, or covered with their own froth—it will not trouble us an iota. Trahit sua quemque voluptas. (We must give a scrap of Latin now and then, or else some of our kind neighbors will twit us of not being "learned.")

The Nationals express as much joy at getting rid of their old party name, as Nessus would have expressed to have shaken off his poisoned shirt. But it will be short-lived joy—any name, however good, will soon be odious, when made to cover their principles. They must change these, which they will do when the leopard changes his spots, before they can become popular. They will not long deceive any one, either by assuming to themselves a popular name, or by attempting to affix an odious one on their opponents. They formerly called the Democrats, Jacobins, and Democrats, in scorn and derision—it did no harm. They called THOMAS JEFFERSON an Infidel, and accused him of the most loathsome crimes—but the cup was returned to their own lips, and they were obliged to taste the draught they prepared for another; they are now reviving their former slanders, and he whom the spirit of treason has led into disgrace, is assailing the AUTHOR OF THE DECLARATION OF AMERICAN INDEPENDENCE—let the serpent hiss—he is stingless.

Signatures and Suffrages.—The attempt of the Bank party to deceive the community by a parade of signatures to distress memorials, is being unveiled by the real suffrages of the people. The thirty-seven hundred and odd names, which were so ostentatiously paraded through the country, as voters in Mr McKim's district, for the purpose of compelling him to resign his seat in Congress, turned out upon investigation considerably less than half that number. How is it with the great parade that is made about re-action in Albany?—the Bankites claimed 3300 votes—their distress memorial contained 2800 signatures, [illegible] be qualified voters," as Mr Webster asserted inthe Senate, but have dwindled down to 2044! whilst the 1428 signatures subscribed to the Democratic memorial, have increased to nearly sixteen hundred. Truly, says the New York Evening Post, we may say, in reference to the fictitious names attached to the Bank memorials, that this is a government of suffrages, not of signatures.

The Bank party make a great huzza about re-action in Albany; that party claim a majority of 474 in that city; in September, 1832, they had a majority of 363, being a prodigious gain of 111!

Great Anti-Bank Meeting in Baltimore.—Pursuant to a call from the Jackson Republican Convention of the city of Baltimore, a Meeting of the Friends of the National Administration assembled in Monument Square, on the Evening of Wednesday, the 7th instant. After the organization of the meeting, spirited resolutions were passed approving the course of the administration, and condemning that of the Senate. The Republican of Friday, says:—

"The number of persons present, according to estimates of many who are accustomed to see and calculate the number of large masses of people, [illegible] posed to amount, upon the lowest calculation, from 6,000 to 8,000. And as the opposition prints had requested their friends not to attend, we presume and believe there were but very few of them present. Still there were some, and some of them have admitted to us that the meeting was larger than the one which had been held two weeks previous, to express their sentiments in favor of the Bank."

The N. Y. Evening Post of Saturday, says:—Another Victory has been achieved by our friends in the very focus of the influence of the Bank. A letter from Philadelphia, dated yesterday, says—"In counting off for judges of the election in Moyamensing, we have beaten the bank party two to one." The people are gaining one advantage after another over their great enemy in the very seat of its power.

The Bank Committee.—The Pennsylvanian of Friday says—

"The Bank Investigation goes on, we have reason to believe, but slowly, if it can be said to go on at all. So far, if report is to be credited, nothing has been done except the submission of propositions and demurrers, new propositions and new demurrers.—The ultimatum has not been arrived at by either party. The Committee is determined to do its duty to the people, and accept no derogatory compromise, and the Bank is equally determined to assume a separate and equal station among the powers of the earth, and to maintain its arrogated position as a co-ordinate or rather paramount division of government, owing no responsibility, and resolved to submit to no satisfactory inspection."

The Democratic members of the New York Legislature have passed resolutions recommending a Convention at Herkimer, on the 10th of September, for the nomination of candidates for Governor and Lieut. Governor. The same individuals have issued an address to the Democratic editors of the State, in which the prominent political questions of the day are revived and discussed with great ability—and in which the principal plotters against the present administration are shewed up in all their political deformity.

Connecticut Election of Governor.—The Legislature of Connecticut elected their Governor on Thursday. The votes stood as follows—Whole number 224. For Foot 154—Edwards, 70.

William R. Hitchcock, Esq. of Cheshire, has been appointed by Gov. Foot, of Connecticut, Executive Secretary.

STENOGRAPHIC GLIMPSES OF CONGRESS—No. 135.

Washington, May 7th, 1834.—Well! the agony of the Whigs about Poindexter's Resolutions and the Protest, is over. Clay's Resolutions, debated 4 months, passed on the 28th March, I think; the Protest was received the 10th of April, I believe; and after a month's debate, Mr Poindexter's rejecting Resolutions, modified, re-modified, amended and re-amended, have at last passed by a vote of 27 to 16, three of the administration Senators being absent—Messrs Morris, Robinson, and Kane. The Whigs have only had their first fire, and missed; the minority are a dead shot; they will yet hit the "dignity" of the Whigs under the fifth rib. But of this hereafter.

Mr Webster had the floor to-day, and spoke two hours on the subject of the removal of the deposites, and Secretary, and Clay's Resolutions, Poindexter's, and the Protest. He commenced by lamenting the unhappy contest between the Senate and President, whose distinguished services, well earned honors, and unquestioned honesty, he spoke of in terms of commendation—rather inconsistent with the scope of his argument. It is a little singular that Mr Webster has hung fire so long on the removal of the deposites, to make rather a bad shot at last with his blunderbuss. His argument was essentially a verbal criticism. He distinguished himself rather as a Zoilus than a Demosthenes, evincing a stronger curiosity to know who wrote the Protest, than ability to refute its positions. What would he have said of General Jackson's generalship at New Orleans, if he had spent his time in trying to find out who drew up Packenham's plan of battle, instead of making preparations to gammon him?

Speaking of the President's responsibility, he said it was only a "responsibility to impeachment;" that there was no responsibility but to the laws; if a Secretary of any of the departments, or a collector, offended against the laws, he had no responsibility about it; but he deigned to give no reasons for his dogmas. A man is responsible for his servant's conduct, or his dog's misconduct; but shall the President have the power of nominating and appointing a Secretary (of an important department of the Government) by and with the advice of the Senate, and yet not be in any wise responsible for the discharge of this officer's duty? "Certainly," argues Mr Webster; "this responsibility belongs to the laws." But is not the President required by the Constitution to "see the laws executed?" Oh yes, says Mr Webster; but then he cannot direct, or control an officer in the discharge of his duty, and he is only "responsible to be impeached," if he does not see the laws executed—that's all.

"What is public opinion?" asked he, with an air of triumph. "Ours is a government of laws: all popular opinion breaks down governments!" What a magnificent idea! wonder where he catched it? Oh, ah! I recollect—from Mr Adams—"palsied by the will of our constituents." After noticing one more new, original, primitive, interesting and entertaining sophism, I will leave the orator and his dogmas. He said the bill to re-charter the Bank contained a condition to pay the United States annually $200,000; and that as the State Banks were paying nothing for the deposites, the government and people were defrauded of $200,000 per annum. Did not Mr Webster know it to be false that this $200,000 was to be paid for the privilege of having the deposites?—and did he not know that this was a bonus given for the re-charter of the Bank, and that the privilege of receiving the deposites was the consideration for transmitting the Government's money to all parts of the Union? If the people are defrauded of $200,000 per annum by this course, they are defrauded of 20,000,000 of dollars by the rejection of the petition from Boston, offering this sum for a charter of a new Bank. Suppose we offset our argument, Mr Webster? [illegible] taking his seat, and made a powerful argument in justification of the President's conduct under this unprecedented course of persecution from the Senate, that had continued from the commencement of the session to the present moment. From the moment the Journal had been read in the morning, memorials had been introduced, containing the most criminal charges and the most offensive language; and they had been followed by speeches in which almost every offence had been charged upon the President, and every opprobrious epithet applied to him; and at last we had been told, after the Resolutions introduced by the member from Kentucky, containing specific charges of impeachment, and only modified and amended at the last moment, that the Resolutions passed by the Senate imputed no bad motives to the President—they simply charged him with violating the Constitution! But I must pause here. Mr Forsyth made a brief and forcible speech; Mr Webster explained; the vote on the Resolutions was taken, rejecting the request of the President to have the Protest put upon the Journals.

REIS EFFENDI.

"Matilde, or the Chamber of Death."—Mr F. S. Hill's new play, which is to be produced this evening, at the Warren Theatre for his benefit, is said to possess intense interest, and notwithstanding the great success of his "Six Degrees of Crime," it is confidently predicted that "Matilde" will far exceed it in general popularity. There will undoubtedly be a crowded audience to witness its introduction, as it has been gotten up with care and deliberation, and will probably be as well performed to-night as at any future time.

Mrs Drake will commence a short engagement at the Tremont Theatre this evening. She is an actress of much power and talent, and in some characters is said to exceed Miss Kemble.

☞ We have received a communication relative to Mr C. H. Eaton, which we shall publish to-morrow.

Chief Justice Marshall.—We learn from the New York Commercial Advertiser that Judge Marshall has yielded to the request of his friends to have his bust executed in marble, and that John Frazee, Esq. of New York, has been selected as the artist. Mr F. will proceed to Richmond in a few days, to execute the model. The bust is ordered by the Hon. Thomas H. Perkins, of this city, and is to be placed in the Athenæum.

By a notice in the Baltimore Chronicle, it appears, that the Maryland Savings Institution has been compelled to suspend its operations. The directors say, they have adopted a measure which will tend to secure full payment of all the deposites in the institution.

From Cape of Good Hope.—We have received, through the politeness of Mr Briggs, of the Mechanics' Reading Room, a file of Cape Town papers, put on board the brig Plant, from Messina, by a British Indiaman—they contain nothing of interest.

Batavia, January 10.—The government sold this day, at public auction, 6000 piculs coffee, average of 27 pr picul; 4000 were withdrawn at 28.

The British sloop of war Comus, Wm. Prince Hamilton, commander, arrived at New York on Friday from Bermuda, for the purpose of conveying to England a messenger from Canada with important despatches.

The U. States schooner Grampus arrived at St. Thomas on the 22d ult. having in a gale, thrown over eight guns, and lost her boats.

CONGRESS.

In the Senate, on Wednesday, resolutions were adopted calling upon the Secretary of the Treasury, for information in regard to the amount of the duties in foreign imports, during the first quarter of 1834. On motion of Mr Frelinghuysen, the Senate proceeded to the consideration of the Special Order, being Mr Poindexter's resolution, as amended by Mr Calhoun. Mr Webster spoke at length in favor of the resolutions as amended by Mr Calhoun's resolutions. Mr Benton then rose and spoke in reply, and against the resolutions and amendment. Mr Forsyth then spoke at some length in reply to Mr Webster, to which Mr. W. rejoined. The question was ordered to be taken upon the resolutions separately, by yeas and nays. The question was then taken, in the first resolution, viz:

"Resolved, That the Protest communicated to the Senate by the President of the United States, asserts powers as belonging to the President which are inconsistent with the just authority of the two Houses of Congress, and inconsistent with the Constitution of the United States." And decided in the affirmative, 27 to 16.

The question recurring on the following resolutions, to wit:

Resolved, That while the Senate is, and ever will be, ready to receive from the President all such messages and recommendations as the constitution and laws, and the usual course of public business authorize him to transmit to it, yet it cannot recognise any right in him to make a formal protest against votes and proceedings of the Senate, declaring such votes and proceedings to be illegal and unconstitutional, and requesting the Senate to enter such protest on its journals.

Resolved, That the aforesaid protest is a breach of the privileges of the Senate; and that it be not entered on the journals.

Resolved, That the President of the U. States has no right to send a protest to the Senate against any of its proceedings—

Was decided, yeas 27, nays 16; being determined by the same vote taken upon each resolution separately, which was given upon the first resolution.

In the House, the bill to extend the time for enabling the Commission to carry into effect the Convention with France, was taken up and passed without a devision, after a debate in which Mr Archer stated that information was this morning received that the French Chamber of Deputies had rejected the bill making appropriations for carrying the Convention into effect.—The vote was a very nice one, and so far from rendering this bill unnecessary, it augmented its necessity.

In the Senate, on Thursday, Mr Benton presented a memorial from the city of Boston against rechartering the Bank of the United States, and against the restoration of the deposites, and expressing the opinion that the affairs of the Bank might be wound up without necessarily producing general embarrassment, or any evils the apprehension of which should prevent the national legislature from discharging a great debt to the present age, and to posterity, by permitting that institution to expire upon the limitation of its charter. He said that the memorial was very numerously signed, the letter which accompanied it, stating the number at upwards of three thousand, and from his information and belief, comprised a mass of intelligence and respectability which entitled the opinions expressed to the highest regard. Mr B. said that he fully concurred in all the sentiments expressed by the memorialists, but that he would only avail himself of the present occasion to present some considerations in favor of the concluding sentiment expressed by the memorialists.

The bill appropriating $652,000 for the improvement and extension of the Cumberland Road was passed as in Committee of the whole and reported to the Senate, and the question being on ordering the bill to be en- [illegible] ative, yeas 21, nays 13.

In the House, after some unimportant business, the general Appropriation Bill, with Mr Vance's amendment, was taken up. The question on the first clause, reducing the compensation of the Vice President and Heads of Departments was then taken by yeas and nays, and determined in the negative; yeas 48, nays 141.

Before any further amendments were acted upon, the House adjourned.

Very late from Bogota.—A letter from Pasto of March 12th says, "From the day of the earthquake (20th January) to this date, continual rumblings have been heard, and on the 1st of March so strong a motion was felt, that it shook down some of the few houses that remained standing."

Bogota, April 6th.—By the papers from Guayaquil we learn that after the horrible contest between the troops of the government of Equador and those of its opposers had ceased, it broke out afresh, and the fighting was renewed.—Jour. Com.

From Jamaica—eight days later.—We have received the Cornwall Courier of the 23d of April. It contains no matters of general interest, nor any new facts bearing upon the act of Parliament, emancipating the slaves in the British West India Islands, but it breathes a strong but suppressed hostility to that measure.—N. Y. Com.

From Barbadoes.—By the brig Belle we have papers to April 21st. Almost the only local subject mentioned in the papers is slavery. Among other documents is a very well written petition to the Legislature, signed by a large number of free colored men.—Ibid.

Calcutta, Dec. 29.—The first opium sale took place this day, consisting of 5000 chests. The biddings were heavy, but it went off evenly at from 940 to 1003 rupees per chest for the Behar, and 930a950 for Benares.

From Africa.—The Brig American N. Bedford, arrived at New York from Loando, west coast of Africa—reports that two brigs and a schooner (Pirates) under Spanish colors was cruising on the coast. Several Portuguese vessels had been robbed by them.

The Cholera.—The Savannah Georgian publishes an extract of a letter from Columbus, in Georgia, in which it is said that the cholera was raging within thirty-five miles from that place, and in the short space of a week had destroyed eight persons in one family. It was, however, abating.—Balt. Rep.

Extract of a letter, dated Louisville, 29th April.—"The Cholera is very bad on the river—a boat arrived here yesterday, from New Orleans, lost 17 passengers, 8 of them cabin, and very respectable." The Captain of the steamer Henry Clay, arrived at New Orleans from Cincinnati, reports that the Cholera had broken out on board the steamer Philadelphia.

A few days since the wife of Mr C. B. Wetherbee, of Belmont, Me. stepped out of the house to go to one of her neighbors for a moment, leaving a child, sitting in the door about two years old, was attracted by the screams of her child, hastened back where she found an old sow had dragged the child from the door and was eating its little hand. The thumb was entirely eat off and devoured, and the hand greatly chewed up. It is feared the hand will have to be amputated.

Fire.—On Saturday morning, about 2 o'clock, fire was discovered in the second and third stories of building No 35 Washington street, the lower story occupied by Mr Ralph T. Haskins, jeweller, the chambers by a Mr Richardson, cutler. It was soon extinguished with trifling damage. The building was owned by Mr John Redman, and insured at the Firemens' and American offices.—Trans.

We learn from a gentleman who left New Haven yesterday noon, that an accident occurred at the New Catholic Church during the service "of dedication," by the falling of a gallery. A number of persons were seriously injured, and one or two were said to have been killed.—Friday's Jour. Com.

POLICE COURT.

"Postponed for further consideration," which means, that if nothing more important transpires in Police affairs, certain little memoranda, otherwise consigned to oblivion, will see the light;—that is, certain young ladies, and one gentleman, will see their names in print, under circumstances more favorable to extensive publicity than flattering to their feelings. In the present instance, owing to the severe rain-storm on Saturday morning, no fresh fish were brought up by the watch-hooks, and we are consequently compelled to serve up a matrimonial "small fry," caught the day before for the dejeune of our Police patrons.

An Early Marriage.—It is not our custom to use up parties, whose cases have not been prosecuted to final judgment, as we do not consider that they have any claims to the honor of immortality till their conviction is duly recorded; but owing to the failure in the supply of vagabonds, we are constrained to depart from this salutary principle, by announcing that Mistress Mary ☞, a pretty little lady, about 16 years of age, wished to obtain a warrant against her husband Henry, a youth of the same tender age, for sundry fistified assaults. The Court, feeling it to be a delicate thing to interfere between boy and wife, required the testimony of a witness, previous to "letting slip the dogs of" law, armed with a "whereas;" and thereupon, the little Mistress Mary procured the attendance of her friend Jane, who had acquired, during her eccentric career, considerable modest assurance, which was further perfected by her frequent appearance in the Police Court, in the various capacities of witness, plaintiff, and prisoner; when on the stand, she secured the attention of the Court by her boldness and candor, and also commanded our unmitigated admiration, by the elegance of her attire, and the rich nett-work of her thread lace stockings, which revealed the most delicate skin-"ographic glimpses" of the prettiest pair of feet in Christendom. The Chinese may have something smaller, but not whiter, among them. It appeared from Jane's story, that Henry and Mary entered upon their teens, and the duties and delights of domestic happiness, at the same susceptible period, but soon their > ——"eyes forgot the gentle ray

> Their voices lost the tones that shed

and instead of billing and cooing, like a pair of young doves in the Bower of Bliss—an amiable example to the up-springing generation—they scratched and squeeled at each other like a couple of rats caught in the same trap, and nobody seemed to care which whipped. In one of these keen encounters, Mary, for the first time, came off second-best, and, burning under the double disgrace of battered bones and bruised honor, she endeavored to get Nuncle Commonwealth to give naughty little Harry a "fine" drubbing. But it did n't happen to be convenient for Mr Constable to arrest him on Thursday, which gave Mary's wrath time to cool, and on Friday the little wee pair of juvenile specimens of married felicity came into court arm-in-arm, their "eyes looking love to eyes that spake again."

Little Mary then made a profound bow, and expressed a wish to have a little "law's delay," which was granted upon the payment of the costs incurred. They then left the Court, apparently as happy, if not so uneasy, as lovers on their wedding-day.

☞ "Turkey."—As a correspondent wishes to know what is meant by this term, used in our last report, we propound as follows:—

Turkies are "Fancy-Glass Blowers" run to seed.—The meaning of the word has changed within the past week, and is now applied to an individual, who has drank so many turkies as to have been converted into one. The metamorphosis of a "Blower" into a "Turkey," takes place in about 6 months after the first circuit of the Restorators in pursuit of juleps, lobsters and oysters. The appellation of "Fat Turkey," is given to one, who, while holding on to the door, rolls one eye towards the bar, and tries to squint the other up to the timepiece, and gobbles out "you—you—you be—be—hiccup —— 'taint time to shut up yet, eh, is it Jim." It will be perceived by this example, that a "fat turkey," is synonymous with "gone goose."

Mossie, you are wanted.—The Hingham Gazette says, "we feel confident that if the gentleman could be induced to visit this village he would obtain a respectable audience."

DR. WARNER'S PURIFYING VEGETABLE POWDERS, Or Family Bitters—yielding its strength to Wine or water.

As a security against counterfeits, the label will be signed by the wholesale agent, PARKER BARNES. Likewise the steel plate will be observed, as there is a spurious article, which has been offered to the public.

In the spring of the year, every one is troubled more or less with a propensity to sleep, and by the use of this corrective it can be obviated entirely. For purifying and eradicating all kinds of humors from the blood, even if they appear externally in the face, or any part of the body, it is much better and far more efficacious than any external application; in fact I seldom knew it to fail proving effectual. The patient will find it operates more in the blood than any other preparation they ever referred to; it is far better than salts, sulphur, cream tarter, or any other preparation of this kind, for when the blood is once purified with this corrective, it remains in an even temperature through the summer months. For a foul stomach, jaundice, general debility, weakness of limbs, want of appetite, billious and liver complaints, headach, stupor, &c. For the catarrh, which is generally occasioned by the impure state of the blood, there is nothing extant that has proved so efficacious as this purifying corrective. For all the above complaints it is seldom known to fail in proving an effectual remedy.

It is really worth the public attention, as every one is aware of the unpleasant, dull, heavy feeling, which the spring of the year produces; and by the use of this corrective, it can be obviated entirely. Every one who makes use of the above preparation, will be astonished at the mild and gentle effect it has on the blood.

CERTIFICATES.

This is to certify, that I have been troubled in the spring and summer seasons with a dull and stupid feeling, which very much troubled me while about my business, and by taking some of Warner's Purifying Powders, I have found it a perfect remedy, and with confidence recommend it to others who may be similarly affected. ELIAS PIKE.

Boston, April 16th, 1832.

Joseph Moore, of Boston, certifies that he has taken Warner's Family Corrective, or Purifying Powder for purifying the blood, and curing of jaundice, and likewise removing the propensity to sleep, and has found it an effectual remedy.

April 1st, 1832.

I hereby certify that I have taken Warner's Vegetable Purifying Powders for the cure of the jaundice; likewise for purifying the blood, and removing the propensity for sleep which I am always troubled with in the spring of the year. From the benefit which I have received for the above complaints, I cordially recommend it to all that may be similarly affected.

JOHN B. FINN.

Feeling grateful for the benefit which I have received from taking Dr Warner's Vegetable Bitters, for the cure of the jaundice, weakness of the limbs, want of appetite, indigestion, &c. do recommend it as a safe and efficacious remedy for the above complaints. P. COFFIN.

Boston, March 1, 1833.

Other reference to its efficacy may be had by calling on the agent. To be had at wholesale of my sole agent in this city, PARKER BARNES, No 424 Washington street, and retailed by all the principal Druggists, in Boston and vicinity. a116mo

MAYNARD AND NOYES' INK POWDER AND LIQUID INK.—In 1818, the manufacturers determined to furnish the American public with Ink Powder and Ink, which should satisfy those who apply it to the most important uses in banks, public offices, schools, &c. and succeeded most fully, as the following testimonials will show:

American Bank, Boston, Aug. 18, 1831.

Messrs. Maynard & Noyes,

Gentlemen—I have been using your black liquid Ink, in this Bank, for two years past, and have no hesitation in pronouncing it superior to any I have heretofore used. Respectfully yours, WM. H. ODIORNE, Cashier.

Boston, May 30th, 1831.

Messrs. Maynard & Noyes,

Gentlemen—I use no other Ink but yours on the Books of this Institution, and take pleasure in expressing my entire satisfaction with its appearance, and in recommending it to the public as a superior article. Respectfully, your ob't serv't,

THOS. BROWN, Book-keeper, Atlantic Bank.

Register of Deeds' Office, Boston, June 15, 1830.

Messrs. Maynard & Noyes,

Gentlemen—Having used your Ink about seven years, I have the pleasure of informing you, that it fully answers my expectations; and from the appearance of the Records in my office, I am satisfied that it is superior to any I have ever used.—It flows well and gives a beautiful permanent black. Yours Respectfully,

HENRY ALLINE.

Cheshire Bank, Keene, N. H. Jan. 1, 1831.

Messrs. Maynard & Noyes,

Gentlemen—Yours of Dec. 27, was duly received; in reply to which I briefly state, that I have used the Ink-Powder manufactured by you, and no other, for more than ten years last past. I think it makes the best Ink I ever used, and while the quality remains pure, I shall not think of looking for any other kind. Yours, respectfully N. DANA, Cashier.

Register's Office, New-York, Oct. 25, 1831.

Messrs. Maynard & Noyes,

Gentlemen—Having used your Ink about six years, we have no hesitation in pronouncing it superior to any we have heretofore used, and as such cheerfully recommend it. Respectfully, your obedient servants,

JAMES McMURRAY,
DAVID GLAD,
GEORGE MORTIMER.

Patriotic Bank, Washington City, April 10, 1824.

Messrs. Maynard & Noyes,

Gentlemen—For the last year I have been using your Black Ink. I have been much pleased with it, and have no hesitation in recommending it to all who are desirous of giving permanency to their writing. O. CARR, Cashier.

Bank of Michigan, Detroit, July 5, 1830.

We have used Ink, prepared from Messrs. Maynard & Noyes' Ink-Powder, for several years past, and are quite satisfied with it. It flows easily from the pen and has a brilliancy and permanency of color which are not commonly found in other Ink.

C. C. TROWBRIDGE, Cashier.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

We are sorry to have to add to the above testimonials the evidence of Counterfeiters, who, by selecting it for imitation, declare their opinion that it stands foremost in commanding a ready and extensive sale. To enable purchasers to distinguish the genuine from the counterfeit, and thus protect themselves from the fraud, the manufacturers have adopted a new label, composed of intermingled colors of black and red.

Sold by the manufacturers, Nos. 13 and 15, Cornhill, Boston, and by Booksellers, Stationers, Hardware Merchants and Traders generally throughout the United States. tf—april 1

PATENT FOR THE U. STATES.—Mott's Patent Medicated and Champoo Baths, and Systematic Vegetable Medicine. These baths are well known to the medical faculty as being patronized by the most eminent Physicians of Europe and Asia, and are considered in the Oriental Empires as the greatest luxury they enjoy, being a preventive as well as a cure of contagious diseases—and they are now introduced in the United States in a new and perfect form, and with the greatest confidence of success. These Baths are medicated according to the disease—they are now open to the public, and will be administered to families or individuals, under the direction, or according to the prescription of their physician.

Dr. Mott will undertake the cure (or the relief) of all Chronic Diseases, Wounds, (however of long standing,) Ulcers, Abscesses, internal or external, Gout, Rheumatism, Tic Doloroux, Cancers, Imposthumes, and other complaints incident to the human frame.

Dr. M. will personally superintend the various Baths, and attend to the prescriptions of the Medical Gentlemen in behalf of their patients.

Without boasting of the cures that have been performed, or pretending to any wonderful knowledge, he would merely say, he would be happy to render the Baths, and the system of Medicine itself, useful to the high Medical Talent of Boston, leaving it to an enlightened public to decide.

Those spacious premises have been fitted up with great expense, at the corner of Lynde and Cambridge streets, and other places have been purchased to be fitted up as auxiliary establishments. It may be proper to state, that no mercury or mineral preparations are used—no hot medicines, or cold water—but it is, in fact, a union of the simples of the Materia Medica with the Herbal Medica—therefore called Vegetable.

Teeth and Corns, he will undertake to extract scientifically; Bunions on the joints, compound or cancerous Toe Nails, and other diseases of the Feet, diseases of the Eyes, &c.

Male Patients only attended to by me. Mrs. Mott, the Females and Children. No out door cases can be attended to.

N. B. Agents may purchase Patent Rights for villages, towns, or cities, in any part of the United States, with a guarrntee exclusive—together with the Medicines and Book of Directions, by application to DR. MOTT, corner of Lynde and Cambridge streets. tf jan 21

POSITIVE, OR NO PAY.—Mrs. Hill's Cough Drops, or Vegetable Health Restorative.—Prepared entirely from Vegetables.

More than forty years have now elapsed since the receipt was given me by my uncle, a celebrated Physician, at a time that I was troubled with a very bad cough and cold. After taking one dose, I found immediate relief, and a few doses cured me entirely; the effects were astonishing quick, and the numerous instances of the wonderful efficacy of these drops on different people, has induced me to put them up in Phials, with directions, under the impression it would be a public benefit. And as that is my sole aim—and to convince the public that is all, and as a sure guarantee against quackery and deception, I authorise my agents to return the money to all those that do not get relief by their returning the bottle and directions. The relief and absolute cure, particularly of those numerous and complicated disorders arising from neglected colds, is amply attested by the acknowledged approbation of those who are now restored to perfect health, as well as many in the decline of life who frankly acknowledge having received great relief from the use of them in the following diseases, viz:—Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Spitting of Blood, Hooping Cough, Difficulty of Breathing, Influenza, Quinsea, Phthisic, Croup, and all disorders arising from colds. Price 37½ cents per bottle.

For sale wholesale and retail by J. P. Hall, Jr. sole agent, No. 1 Union street, corner of Elm street; Asahel Boyden, Hancock street; Charles Holbrook, Leverett street; E. S. Holden, corner of Beacon and Charles streets; A. Geyer, Hanover st.; John White, Jr. School st.

Also retailed by most of the Apothecaries and country stores throughout the country. jan 26

INDIGESTION, JAUNDICE AND BILIOUS COMPLAINTS. ANDERSON'S VEGETABLE ELIXIR, for Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Jaundice and Bilious Complaints; weakness of the Stomach and Bowels, and consequent loss of appetite; nervous complaints, headach, sour stomach, flatulence and habitual costiveness.

This medicine is composed entirely of vegetable substances, is perfectly safe in its operation, and may be given to children or persons of the most delicate habits, without the least risk of inconvenience.

The uniform success which has attended the use of it where it has been extensively used, in Boston and various other parts of the United States, and in the West Indies, attested by disinterested and highly respectable persons, affords, next to a trial of the medicine itself, the best commentary upon its virtues, and the best recommendation which can be offered to those who are unacquainted with it.

Extract of a letter received from a gentleman in Boston, who had suffered severely from indigestion for three years. 'During this time, I suffered very much from mental depression, constant pain in the head and breast, and side, sharp shooting pains over almost the whole system—the food that I ate seemed to pass into my lungs and there remain, giving me great pain attended with a strong degree of heat. At times, I suffered so much from the pain of indigestion as to be confined to the bed for two or three days. During one of these most severe attacks, I was induced by the advice of a friend to try your Vegetable Medicine. In the course of a few weeks I found myself much better, and by the time I had taken two bottles, considered myself wholly free from the complaint. I continue, on the least feeling of any thing like indigestion or pressure on the stomach, to take about a table spoonful of it, which, in the course of a few hours, completely restores me. It has had with me a very wonderful effect, in strengthening the stomach and invigorating the whole system, and judging by my own case, I consider it in all diseases connected with the digestive organs, to be a very valuable medicine.

It has been found singularly efficacious in cases of the most obstinate headache.

It is put up in large bottles containing a pound and a half: and sold at seventy-five cents each, by Jonathan P. Hall, Jr., No. 1, Union street, John P. Whitwell, Milk street, John J. Brown, near Boylston Market, Erastus S. Holden, near the Western Avenue, Richard R. Newell, Summer street, Boston; Samuel Kidder & Co. Charlestown; E. G. Lemon, Roxbury.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

Charlestown, Jan. 28, 1831.

Mr. Nehemiah Holden, Jr. having requested my opinion respecting his Cement, for pointing Chimnies and Battlement Walls: This may certify that I have witnessed its effects for seven or eight years, and find it completely to answer the purposes desired, after having tried several other preparations in vain. DAVID FOSDICK.

Charlestown, Jan. 30, 1831.

To all who have leaky Chimnies or Battlements, This may certify that after having tried many experiments, the composition Cement, used on my houses for seven or eight years, by Nehemiah Holden, Jr. is in my opinion the best material in use for this purpose. JEHIEL SMITH.

Boston, Jan. 25, 1834.

Mr. Nehemiah Holden Jr. having requested my opinion of his Cement for pointing Chimnies and Battlement Walls—I do certify that I have tried and experienced its effects for six years, and it has given me perfect satisfaction.

LEWIS BURCKES.

☞ In addition to the above recommendations, reference can be made to Bill Richardson, and Ebenezer Sears of Boston, and many other persons in this and other towns, as to the durability and efficacy of the above cement. Printed directions will be furnished for using the above cement.

MARSHALL'S FLUID EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA, for the cure of Obstinate Eruptions of the Skin, Pimples or Pustules on the Face, Biles which arise from an impure habit of body, Scaly Eruptions, Pains in the bones, Chronic Rheumatism, Tetter, Scrofula or King's Evil, White Swellings, Syphilitic Symptons, and all disorders arising from dence in a hot and unhealthy climate, the injudicious use of mercury, &c.

It has been a desideratum with Physicians and patients, to obtain an active preparation of Sarsaparilla in a convenient and portable form. Since Dr. Hancock's publication in the London Medico Botanical Transactions, and Mr. Hodgson's recent Paper in the Journal of the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy—denying the efficacy, and asserting the inertness of any Decoctions, Syrups, or Compound Fluid Extracts made by long and continued boiling; I have been induced to prepare a Concentrated Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla, by a process peculiar to myself; and, aided by a powerful hydraulic press, have succeeded in obtaining a more efficient and active preparation than has ever heretofore been manufactured.

This very convenient and active Syrup is now with confidence offered to the Medical Profession and the public, as possessing in an eminent degree all the active properties of the Sarsaparilla in its most concentrated form.

One pint of the Syrup thus prepared contains the active principle of two pounds of Sarsaparilla. One fluid ounce is equal in strength to one quart of the decoction of the London Pharmacopoeia or the Lisbon Diet Drink.

This article possesses an agreeable and pleasant flavor—and the most delicate and fastidious stomach will bear it conveniently.

"This is to certify, that one of the above described Double Safes, which I purchased of the Messrs. S. A. & W. G. Pierce was in my office in this town when the office was burned on the 2d day of November last—the building was of two stories, wooden, and large. The Safe, weighing 700 lbs. fell from the second story into the cellar, and was exposed to an intense heat for nearly three hours. It was for a long time literally red hot. It contained all the account books, notes, and court-papers, that were in my office; and no paper was in the least degree burnt or rendered illegible. A SUPERIOR ARTICLE FOR SHAVING. SAPONACEOUS COMPOUND. For sale by MAYNARD & NOYES, Agents, 13 Cornhill. M. & N. are happy to say that the testimony of many gentlemen in this city and vicinity correspond fully with the following recommendation from Dr. Reese, of New-York.

August 5, 1830. I have used the "Saponaceous Compound" of Mr. Prentiss, and find it more pleasant to the face, than any of the shaving soaps I have ever employed, either foreign or domestic. I have no occasion for warm water, and the operation of shaving has lost with me half its inconvenience, since I availed myself of this useful invention. As a mild emolient, and soothing application to the skin, I highly esteem it, and recommend it to my patients as a medicament in cutaneous diseases. Respectfully yours, D. M. REESE.

ORIENTAL SHAVING SOAP.—A new and important discovery!! This article is justly celebrated for its peculiar properties in rendering the beard soft and easy to cut. It supercedes other soaps on account of its liquid form, making the process of shaving easier and quicker. The article needs no recommendation but one simple trial, which will prove its qualities.

Directions.—Drop three drops into a cup, wet your brush in warm water and rub it, and it will produce an elegant fine lather, which will not dry for hours.
